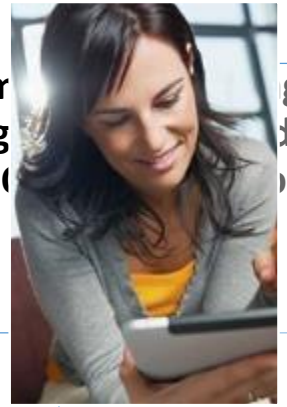
Just finished off the latest Cub Scout adventure, checked off what Cubs were there and boom! Supply had the adventure loops I needed in my mailbox 48 hours later!!

High Value Enhancement/Integration

Awesom g experience! I can plan troop meeting d some great games from other troops. (ock now!



Based on an alert from the troop chair I just paid Michael's membership fee for next year and made his deposit for his high adventure trip. Oh yeah, I also checked on how he is doing on that new merit badge and messaged him about it.

What can councils do today to promote Scoutbook?

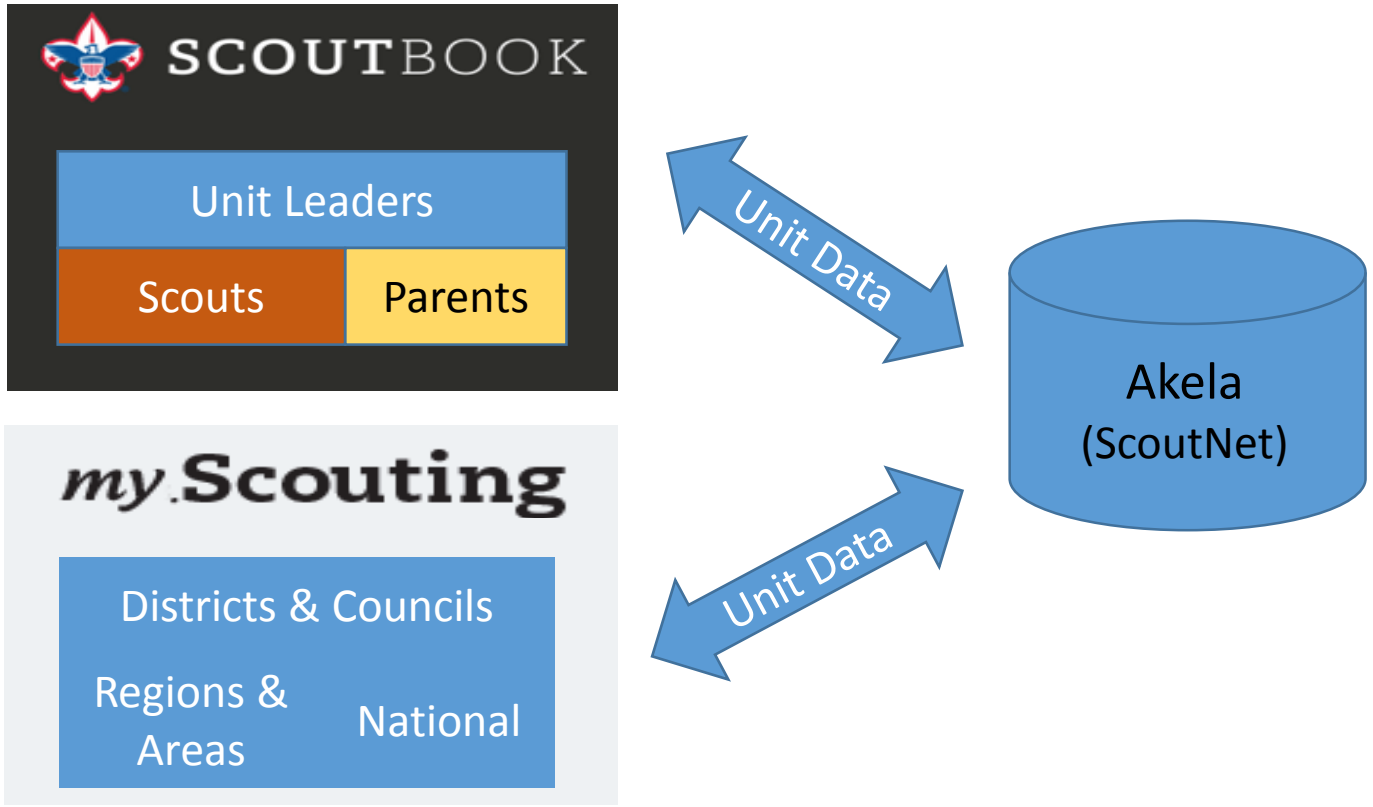
- Endorse and promote Scoutbook.
  - Overview video at http://scouting.webdamdb.com/
  - Presentation and fact sheet at www.scouting.org/scoutbook (10/15)
  - Web banners/email templates at http://scouting.webdamdb.com/
- Support and leverage existing Scoutbook units
  - Trainings, roundtables, etc.
  - Contact bob.scott@scouting.org for list of current units

Can councils purchase Scoutbook?

- Not today! Not directly!
  - Unit set up is a one-unit-at-a-time, manual process
  - Currently no facility to automate the setup
  - Maintaining unit responsibility for set up builds accountability and more active usage, leverages unit's knowledge
- Indirectly councils can support purchase thru refunds, credits or reductions in other unit fees if desired.

Can non-unit leaders use Scoutbook?

- Scoutbook is designed and will remain a unit management tool.
- My.scouting and ScoutNet will continue to be the tools leveraged by non-unit leaders and staff
- Both leverage the same information, in Akela



What can units do today?

- Sign up!

- Select a subscription plan!
  - $1/youth member
  - Increments of 5 youth
  - 30-day trial
